Where your module has more than one assignment, for example, an essay and a presentation which carry separate marks, you must meet the minimum mark for each assignment, whilst also achieving the set pass mark for the module. The exception to this is for modules at SCQF level 10 in 2020/21 academic year, for which you must meet the minimum mark for the aggregated marks for all coursework elements and separately for aggregated marks of any exams, whilst also achieving the set pass mark for the module. The required minimum marks, the pass mark and how the marks for your assessments are weighted should be explained in your module descriptor. Please contact your Module Leader if you need more information.
